

Public Notice
City of Waterbury
Citizen Participation Plan

Notice is hereby given that the Citizens Advisory Committee of the City of Waterbury has proposed to amend the City's adopted Citizen Participation Plan. In accordance with the Citizen Participation Plan, the amendment shall undergo a 15-day review and comment period after the date that it is available. The 15-day comment period shall begin on November 2 and end on November 16, 2009 and then it will be submitted to the Board of Aldermen for adoption. Citizens are invited to review the Plan and submit comments to:

Diane C. Toolan, Housing and Community Planning Director
Waterbury Development Corporation
24 Leavenworth Street
Waterbury, CT 06702
Email: Toolan@wdconline.org

Copies of the proposed amendments to the Citizen Participation Plan are available at no cost at the offices of the WDC, 24 Leavenworth Street; Office of the City Clerk, 236 Grand Street; and the Silas Bronson Library, Main Branch, 267 Grand Street. Individuals with disabilities will be mailed a copy of the Citizen Participation Plan at no cost by calling the WDC at 346-2607. The Citizen Participation Plan is also available online at the City of Waterbury's web address (www.waterburyct.org) and the WDC's web address (www.wdconline.org). The proposed amendments include: technical correction to the end of the City's program year and the submission of its annual performance report; distinction between an amendment and a substantial amendment to the HUD programs and an expansion of the Citizens Advisory Committee's role to include Recovery Act 2009 funds and subsequent funds.

Diane C. Toolan
Housing and Community Planning Director
WDC